COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY DECORUM AND COURTESY

The faculty and staff at The University of Alabama congratulate you on your academic achievement and wish to ensure the commencement ceremony will be a fitting conclusion to this phase of your education!

The University of Alabama Commencement ceremony is, by its very nature, a festive occasion. The festivity manifests itself in many ways including the dress of the students; the faculty adorned in academic regalia; and the warmth, joy and satisfaction of accomplishment. The ceremony is also marked by seriousness where the actual conferring of degrees signifies long, hard work on the part of everyone involved: students, faculty, administrators, parents and spouses. As a consequence of the serious nature of the ceremony, students and guests are expected to maintain a measure of decorum consonant with the occasion.

The University community requests that audience participation be of respectful celebration honoring the commitment to learning and the fulfillment of dreams shared by all degree candidates that today walk across the stage. This element of respectful celebration also extends to the parents, guardians and spouses whose labor and support brings pride to the fulfillment of these dreams, and to the family members aspiring to one day have their moment of “walking across the stage.”

CEREMONIAL FLAGS

Today we celebrate commencement at The University of Alabama. To commemorate the University’s most sacred ceremony, we draw from academic traditions that are centuries old. The Commencement “A” you see throughout these materials and on the commencement flags was first introduced to mark the Capstone’s conferral of degrees at the turn of the century. The Commencement A is a seventeenth-century, Gothic font appropriately named “Diploma.”

HEATHER WOOD CAPSTONE INSPIRING EDUCATOR AWARD

The Capstone Inspiring Educator Award salutes a high school teacher, nominated by a member of the University of Alabama graduating class, for their inspirational approach to teaching and commitment to helping students achieve their highest potential. Graduating senior Ellie Friedman, a political science and Spanish major in the College of Arts and Sciences from Mountain Brook, Alabama, nominated this year's Capstone Inspiring Educator, Heather Wood.

Ms. Wood teaches Spanish and serves as the Chair of the Department of World Languages at Mountain Brook High School. She joined the faculty at her high school alma mater in 2000 and has taught all levels of Spanish including Advanced Placement Spanish Language. In 2008, she achieved National Board Certification in World Languages other than English. Ms. Wood holds a B.A. degree in Spanish and a B.S. degree in International Business from Birmingham-Southern College, a master's degree in Spanish and Applied Linguistics from The University of Alabama and a master's degree in instructional leadership from the University of Montevallo.

"In addition to my love of students and passion for my content, I treasure the ten years that I have served as faculty sponsor of the dance team at Mountain Brook High School," Ms. Wood said. "In my role as sponsor, I have had the pleasure of seeing young women grow as leaders as they develop relationships with one another and cultivate the leadership skills they need in order to be effective members of society."

In nominating Ms. Wood for this award, Ms. Friedman wrote: "She was my Spanish teacher, my dance team sponsor, my friend when I needed to talk, a rock when I was going through a difficult time, and a mentor in the Spanish language. To this day I send her my Spanish papers and she helps me correct and understand my mistakes. Ms. Wood is my teacher, my role model, and my friend."

Ms. Wood is an active member of numerous professional organizations including the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages, the Alabama Association of Foreign Language Teachers, the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese, and the Council for Leaders in Alabama Schools. She has traveled with students to Costa Rica and the Dominican Republic and has studied abroad in Guatemala.

A lifelong learner, Ms. Wood has presented at several local and regional academic conferences. She is a Reader for the Advanced Placement Spanish Language exam each summer and serves on the design team for a district wide leadership cohort in Mountain Brook. She is an active member of the entire school community mentoring new teachers and serving as faculty sponsor for the Spanish Club and Spanish Honor Society. Ms. Wood has two children, daughter, Addison, 9, and son, Ethan, 7.

DR. WILLIAM W. DRESSLER COMMENCEMENT MARSHAL

William W. Dressler (PhD Connecticut, 1978) is Professor of Anthropology. His research examines the relationship between culture and health. His recent work emphasizes concepts and methods for examining the health effects of individual efforts to achieve culturally-defined goals and aspirations. Dressler and colleagues have examined these factors in settings as diverse as urban Great Britain, the Southeast U.S., the West Indies, Mexico, and Brazil. In his research he has shown that difficulties in achieving the culturally-defined goals in a society are associated with increased risk of high blood pressure, obesity, depression, and poor immune function.

In addition to teaching in anthropology, Prof. Dressler has served on the faculties of the School of Social Work and the College of Community Health Sciences. He has directed nine doctoral dissertations and served on numerous master's committees. For undergraduates, he regularly teaches introductory anthropology and other courses required for the undergraduate major.

Prof, Dressler has been recognized in various ways for his research. In 1979 he won the Stirling Award from the American Anthropological Association. From 1984 to 1986 he was appointed a University Research Fellow of The University of Alabama. In 2000 Prof. Dressler was the John P. Kirscht Distinguished Lecturer, School of Public Health, University of Michigan, and in 2002 he received the University of Alabama's Burnum Distinguished Faculty Award. In 2005 he was named a College of Arts & Sciences Leadership Board Faculty Fellow. He served as a member of the Executive Board of the Society for Medical Anthropology (SMA) from 1988-1991, and from 1998-2002 he was President of the SMA. His research has been funded by both the National Institutes of Health and the National Science Foundation.

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The processional signifies the beginning of the commencement ceremony. The Commencement Marshal presides over the Academic Procession; leads the platform party to the stage; escorts the honorary degree candidate and the special recognition recipients to the presidential podium for honorary degree conferral or special recognition citation reading; and signifies the closing of the ceremony by leading the platform party from the stage. The Commencement Marshal is the bearer of the ceremonial mace. As the processional music begins, the procession led by the candidates, followed by faculty, then the platform party, will enter the arena floor and go to their designated seating. The audience should rise once the processional music has begun and remain until after the invocation.

The caps and gowns worn by graduates, faculty and platform party are based on the academic costumes used in universities of the fourteenth or fifteenth centuries, particularly at Oxford and Cambridge. These academic costumes, sometimes referred to as academic regalia, are based on the early European universities costumes, and these have been used in the United States since colonial times. In 1895, American universities responded to a growing problem of varying academic costumes by creating an Intercollegiate Code to establish standardized academic costumes. Black is the most common color of academic gowns.

In the fall of 1999, a new doctoral gown was authorized for all University of Alabama students earning a doctorate degree. Designed to distinguish University of Alabama doctoral degree graduates, this new doctoral gown was introduced for the 21st century. The new doctoral gowns were worn for the first time at the May 2000 ceremony.

The doctoral gown includes two crimson University of Alabama seals on the front panel of the gown, while the traditional doctoral bars are piped with crimson. The new doctoral gowns place The University of Alabama among a select group of universities who have their own doctoral gowns including Harvard, Yale, Stanford and Princeton.

The members of The University of Alabama Board of Trustees wear doctoral gowns of charcoal gray trimmed in black velvet. The Commencement Marshal wears a crimson doctoral gown trimmed in red velvet. Graduates may be identified by the color of the tassel on the black mortar board which signifies the School or if they are receiving an advanced degree, the color of the band on the hood, which signifies the field of study.

The University of Alabama awards degrees with honors to undergraduate students in all schools and colleges who throughout their academic careers consistently achieved meritorious scholastic standing. These designations are summa cum laude, magna cum laude and cum laude. Summa cum laude is the highest academic distinction awarded. Degree candidates with honors wear stoles in the traditional colors of their school or college. Silver cords indicate participation in the University Honors Program. Royal blue and gold cords indicate participation in the International Honors Program. Computer Based Honors is represented by the purple honor cord.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the audience will rise for the singing of the “Alma Mater” and the recessional. The words to the “Alma Mater” are printed on the back cover of the program. The recessional is led by the platform party, followed by the faculty and the candidates. Candidates should meet their family members and guests at predetermined designated areas outside the coliseum.

The University of Alabama conditionally confers degrees upon all candidates for the degrees of Educational Specialists through undergraduate. Candidates for Doctor of Education, Doctor of Musical Arts, Doctor of Nursing Practice, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees are actual degree recipients and will receive their diploma at the ceremony. Diplomas for all other candidates who successfully meet degree requirements will be mailed to their permanent address of record upon the completion of final grade submission and degree verification, approximately one month after the ceremony. Honors designations are calculated on previous semesters grade point average. The honor announced, depending upon calculation of final grade point average, may change or in some cases the degree candidate may not actually graduate with an honor designation.

Undergraduate degree candidates wearing the crimson mortar board have achieved a perfect 4.0 grade point average for all of their University of Alabama course work.

An interpreter for hearing impaired spectators will be stationed on the stage and displayed on the Jumbotron.

Drinking fountains and restroom facilities are located on the main concourse area of the Coliseum.

This program is not an official graduation list.

This printed program lists students who held the status of degree candidates during the spring term and may, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades, become graduates. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record kept by the Office of the University Registrar, 206 Student Service Center, Box 870134, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487.

Alma Mater

Alabama, listen Mother
To our vows of love,
To thyself and to each other
Faithful friends we'll prove.

Chorus:

Faithful, loyal firm and true
Heart bound to heart will beat
Year by year the ages through
Until in heaven we meet.

College days are swiftly fleeting.
Soon we'll leave thy halls,
Ne'er to join another meeting
'Neath thy hallowed walls

Chorus

So, farewell, dear Alma Mater,
May thy name, we pray,
Be revered ever, pure and stainless
As it is today.
