COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY DECORUM AND COURTESY

The faculty and staff at The University of Alabama congratulate you on your academic achievement and wish to ensure the commencement ceremony will be a fitting conclusion to this phase of your education!

The University of Alabama Commencement ceremony is, by its very nature, a festive occasion. The festivity manifests itself in many ways including the dress of the students; the faculty adorned in academic regalia; and the warmth, joy and satisfaction of accomplishment. The ceremony is also marked by seriousness where the actual conferring of degrees signifies long, hard work on the part of everyone involved: students, faculty, administrators, parents and spouses. As a consequence of the serious nature of the ceremony, students and guests are expected to maintain a measure of decorum consonant with the occasion.

The University community requests that audience participation be of respectful celebration honoring the commitment to learning and the fulfillment of dreams shared by all degree candidates that today walk across the stage. This element of respectful celebration also extends to the parents, guardians and spouses whose labor and support brings pride to the fulfillment of these dreams, and to the family members aspiring to one day have their moment of “walking across the stage.”

Today we celebrate commencement at The University of Alabama. To commemorate the University’s most sacred ceremony, we draw from academic traditions that are centuries old. The Commencement “A” you see throughout these materials and on the commencement flags was first introduced to mark the Capstone’s conferral of degrees at the turn of the century. The Commencement A is a seventeenth-century, Gothic font appropriately named “Diploma.”

His state-side assignments included Colorado Springs, CO; Denver, CO; San Antonio, TX; and Dayton, OH. His final assignment was with the Headquarters Air Force Materiel Command, Office of the Inspector General, located at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio. While in the Air Force he completed Squadron Officer School, Air Command & Staff College, and the Air War College. Michael retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in the regular Air Force.

DR. JOHN SCHMITT COMMENCEMENT MARSHAL

Dr. John Schmitt is Associate Dean of the Graduate School, Assistant to the Provost, and Professor of Communicative Disorders. He earned B.A. and M.A. degrees in speech-language pathology from the University of Akron and a Ph.D. in communication sciences and disorders from Wichita State University. In 1973 he joined the faculty as an instructor and clinical supervisor in the UA Department of Communicative Disorders where he taught courses in speech and language disorders and served as director of the residential stuttering and aphasia rehabilitation programs at the department's clinic. Other courses he taught include language development; language assessment and intervention; research methods; diagnostic procedures for speech-language disorders; and clinical supervision in speech-language pathology.

Dr. Schmitt's research publications, presentations and invited workshops focused on adult and child language and speech development as well as communication changes associated with the aging brain. He developed a computer-based method for testing auditory-temporal processing with time-compressed and time-expanded speech, designed to determine the most effective speaking rates to enhance language comprehension by aging individuals. For work in auditory-temporal processing the American Speech-Language-Hearing Foundation recognized him as a doctoral research scholar.

During his 25 years in the Graduate School, Dr. Schmitt developed a number of programs designed to enhance the experience of graduate students. Among them is an annual Workshop for New Graduate Teaching Assistants. It features the videorecording and expert analysis of each of UA's 300 new GTAs before they enter a UA classroom or lab. He created the Graduate Teaching Fellows program to assist new GTAs and since 1989 has trained more than 7,000 GTAs for UA's undergraduate classrooms.

Dr. Schmitt led the development of the online Graduate Catalog and index of web resources by which prospective and current students, faculty and staff access comprehensive graduate information. He also designed an online system for documenting and evaluating award nominations from the colleges for their outstanding graduate students, and he coordinated the annual selection of UA master's and doctoral student award winners for outstanding dissertation, thesis, teaching, research and service.

Schmitt conducted multiple thesis and dissertation writing seminars each year, and he was liaison among committees of the Graduate Council to develop policies reflecting best practices in graduate education. He worked with a Graduate Council task force to eliminate paper-based submission of thesis and dissertation manuscripts and organized the Graduate School's website for electronic submission of each UA thesis and dissertation. He coordinated the efforts of colleges and departments to develop new graduate degree programs, specializations, and certificate programs for approval by the Graduate Council, Board of Trustees and the Alabama Commission on Higher Education.

He worked with the Conference of Southern Graduate Schools for a number of years and chaired its Committee on Issues and Planning, serving as coordinator of the annual convention of graduate deans in the Southern United States. Dr. Schmitt is the longest-serving active member of the Alabama Council of Graduate Deans and the first Associate Dean to chair the organization, a position he held twice.

As Assistant to the Provost, Dr. Schmitt coordinated the regular reviews of UA's departments and 193 degree programs. He designed an online document repository and reporting system for program reviews, committee and consultant reports, and the required follow-up reports instrumental to the University's accreditation efforts. He was the Coordinator of the Academic Common Market, a 16-state scholarship program supporting over 200 students each year.

For nearly a decade Dr. Schmitt served as the University's liaison to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). He was the Academic Affairs contact for UA's 1994 reaccreditation; director of the 2005 reaccreditation for the University; and the Graduate School point person for the 2015 reaccreditation.

He served SACSCOC as a frequent site visitor responsible for evaluating universities in the U.S. and Mexico. For SACSCOC he provided expertise on best practices in graduate education, faculty qualifications, program review, institutional effectiveness and outcomes assessment.

Dr. Schmitt co-developed the University's first centralized, online institutional effectiveness system to document outcomes, assessment measures, results of assessment, and data-driven improvements by more than 300 degree programs and administrative units. The online system was a model for several other universities to develop their own assessment documentation procedures.

Dr. John Schmitt is retiring from the University in June 2015 after 39 years of service.

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The processional signifies the beginning of the commencement ceremony. The Commencement Marshal presides over the Academic Procession; leads the platform party to the stage; escorts the honorary degree candidate and the special recognition recipients to the presidential podium for honorary degree conferral or special recognition citation reading; and signifies the closing of the ceremony by leading the platform party from the stage. The Commencement Marshal is the bearer of the ceremonial mace. As the processional music begins, the procession led by the candidates, followed by faculty, then the platform party, will enter the arena floor and go to their designated seating. The audience should rise once the processional music has begun and remain until after the invocation.

The caps and gowns worn by graduates, faculty and platform party are based on the academic costumes used in universities of the fourteenth or fifteenth centuries, particularly at Oxford and Cambridge. These academic costumes, sometimes referred to as academic regalia, are based on the early European universities costumes, and these have been used in the United States since colonial times. In 1895, American universities responded to a growing problem of varying academic costumes by creating an Intercollegiate Code to establish standardized academic costumes. Black is the most common color of academic gowns.

In the fall of 1999, a new doctoral gown was authorized for all University of Alabama students earning a doctorate degree. Designed to distinguish University of Alabama doctoral degree graduates, this new doctoral gown was introduced for the 21st century. The new doctoral gowns were worn for the first time at the May 2000 ceremony.

The doctoral gown includes two crimson University of Alabama seals on the front panel of the gown, while the traditional doctoral bars are piped with crimson. The new doctoral gowns place The University of Alabama among a select group of universities who have their own doctoral gowns including Harvard, Yale, Stanford and Princeton.

The members of The University of Alabama Board of Trustees wear black doctoral gowns trimmed in crimson velvet. The Commencement Marshal wears a charcoal gray doctoral gown trimmed in crimson velvet. Graduates may be identified by the color of the tassel on the black mortar board which signifies the School or if they are receiving an advanced degree, the color of the band on the hood, which signifies the field of study.

The University of Alabama awards degrees with honors to undergraduate students in all schools and colleges who throughout their academic careers consistently achieved meritorious scholastic standing. These designations are summa cum laude, magna cum laude and cum laude. Summa cum laude is the highest academic distinction awarded. Degree candidates with honors wear stoles in the traditional colors of their school or college. Silver cords indicate participation in the University Honors Program. Royal blue and gold cords indicate participation in the International Honors Program. Computer Based Honors is represented by the purple honor cord.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the audience will rise for the singing of the “Alma Mater” and the recessional. The words to the “Alma Mater” are printed on the back cover of the program. The recessional is led by the platform party, followed by the faculty and the candidates. Candidates should meet their family members and guests at predetermined designated areas outside the coliseum.

The University of Alabama conditionally confers degrees upon all candidates for the degrees of Educational Specialists through undergraduate. Candidates for Doctor of Education, Doctor of Musical Arts, Doctor of Nursing Practice, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees are actual degree recipients and will receive their diploma at the ceremony. Diplomas for all other candidates who successfully meet degree requirements will be mailed to their permanent address of record upon the completion of final grade submission and degree verification, approximately one month after the ceremony. Honors designations are calculated on previous semesters grade point average. The honor announced, depending upon calculation of final grade point average, may change or in some cases the degree candidate may not actually graduate with an honor designation.

Undergraduate degree candidates wearing the crimson mortar board have achieved a perfect 4.0 grade point average for all of their University of Alabama course work.

An interpreter for hearing impaired spectators will be stationed on the stage and displayed on the Jumbotron.

Alma Mater

Alabama, listen Mother
To our vows of love,
To thyself and to each other
Faithful friends we'll prove.

Chorus:

Faithful, loyal firm and true
Heart bound to heart will beat
Year by year the ages through
Until in heaven we meet.

College days are swiftly fleeting.
Soon we'll leave thy halls,
Ne'er to join another meeting
'Neath thy hallowed walls

Chorus

So, farewell, dear Alma Mater,
May thy name, we pray,
Be revered ever, pure and stainless
As it is today.
