

UA-Stillman Cooperative Exchange Program

Registration Form

ELIGIBILITY: To participate in this program, UA students must be enrolled as a full-time degree-seeking student during the term they intend to take coursework at Stillman through this program. The coursework taken at Stillman will count towards this full-time enrollment status. Eligible students may enroll in a maximum of 6 credit hours per semester at Stillman, and a total of 24 credit hours during their undergraduate career. Any courses beyond those caps will require payment of tuition to Stillman College. UA students will be responsible for paying all other charges due beyond tuition, based on their enrollment. These include college/course fees, electronic book charges, parking charges, etc.

Concurrent courses at Stillman may only be taken during the Fall and Spring semester. Summer enrollment will require payment of tuition and applicable fees to Stillman College.

INSTRUCTIONS: UA students will apply to Stillman’s Undergraduate Admissions as transient (non-degree) students. UA students must also complete this form, obtain the necessary signatures, and return to the Office of the University Registrar (206 Student Services, registrar@ua.edu). Tuition and fees are due to The University of Alabama by the established payment deadline. UA financial and academic policies will apply to this course. Upon the conclusion of the semester, participating students should request that Stillman send the official transcript to:
